

Hieroglyphics

Midnite

Wake up in red sheets
Smell the day
Taste the salt
Your fingertips are hieroglyphics
Waiting to behave themselves
And I'll not try
As ancient as we are
I'll not bleed your wasted fantasy I don't know why you care 'cause I don't Give me your break neck faceplate again
For heavens sake don't you
Forget about it
And I'll come running back
When love's on the line
For the second time
I'll be your pet
And you'll be mine I don't know why you care 'cause I don't You're just a throw away
You're just a throw away
A stone's throw away
From the center of a pyramid I don't know why you care 'cause I don't Oh you're just a throw away
From the center of a pyramid
Oh you're just a throw away
