Bang Bang

Utkarsh Ambudkar

Wooh Wo-ohh w-oooyooh
Ye-yea-ohh wo-oohh W-oooo-oh
You call me on the phone said you couldn't be alone,come over even though it's late. Told you i had work early in the morning, but babe at all i feel the same. The next night i decided to surprise you at your place, what do you know you got another joe's arms wrapped around your waist and bang bang bang bang wooohhhh there you go again putting a bullet in my heart just when i start to let you back in you go bang bang bang bang ohhhh in my heart again and now the blood seep through my cardigan and i'm at your window hollerin' now how could you give up on love wooh i ohh i throw love away yeahhhhh how could you give up on love wooh i oh i throw love away yeeaahhh you call me on the phone said you couldn't be alone, come over even though it's late told you had work early in the morning, but babe at all i feel the same the next night i decided to surprise you at your place what do ya know? You got another joe's lips kissing on your face and bang bang bang bang oohhh there you go again putting a bullet in my heart just when i start to let you back in you go bang bang bang bang ohhh in my heart again now the blood seeps through my cardigan and i'm at your window hollerin' now how could you give up on love woah i oh i throw love away yeaahhh how could you give up on love woah i oh i throw love away yeaahhh bang bang bang bang
