

Borrowed Time

Madonna

Do we need to start a war
Do we need to take a side
If we open up our eyes
Realize that we are dying
Is it all worth fighting for
It all comes down to Who's wrong or right
Who's black or white
It doesn't matter what you're bleeding for Straight or bi or
God almighty
Doesn't matter underneath it all 'Cause we're only here to love
Like there's no tomorrow
So let's live each moment like our time is only borrowed
Do we need to build a bomb
Do we need to fire a gun
If you have to stand your ground
It's a war that can't be won
Is it all worth dying for
It all comes down to Who's rich or poor
Virgin or whore
It doesn't matter what you're praying for
Death or life
You're truth almighty
Doesn't matter underneath it all 'Cause we're only here to love
Like there's no tomorrow
So let's live each moment like our time is only borrowed
It all comes down to
Who's rich or poor
Virgin or whore
It doesn't matter what you're praying for
Death or life
You're truth almighty
Doesn't matter underneath it all 'Cause we're only here to love
Like there's no tomorrow
So let's live each moment like our time is only borrowed
