

Kitty

Cat Stevens

I work in the mornin', I work in the night
The men on the block they just laugh at me
I work in the mornin', I work in the night
The men on the block they just laugh at me
But when they're wiping their silver spoons
Palming the men for some bread
I'll be laughing
Way, way out of my head
When my little kitty gets out
There's gonna be a party, a party no doubt
When my little kitty gets out
There's gonna be a party
And if my mind isn't coming so fast
The men on the block say I'm on the brink
And if my mind isn't coming so fast
And I ain't so dumb as some people think

'Cause when they're wiping their silver spoons
Palming the men for some bread
I'll be laughing
Way, way out of my head
When my little kitty gets out
There's gonna be a party, a party no doubt
When my little kitty gets out
There's gonna be a party
I'll be laughing
Way, way out of my head
When my little kitty gets out
There's gonna be a party, a party no doubt
When my little kitty gets out
There's gonna be a party

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>