Too Serious Too Soon

Gareth Gates

I wonder where you are
I wonder what you're thinking of tonight, I wonder
Maybe you're alone
Maybe you've been crying just like me, I wonder
I don't know why I lost your touch
Maybe I wanted to be loved too much
Too serious, too soon, I wanted you to love me
I wanted to be there for you, like no one else before
Too serious, too soon, I wanted you to love me
It's been a rainy afternoon, now I'm staring at the moon
Thinking we got too serious, too soon
I told you every day
I told you every night in every way, I love you
Maybe you've got scared
But maybe I had nothing else to say but I love you
So baby, now my life's a mess
'Cause I couldn't love you any less

Too serious, too soon, I wanted you to love me
I wanted to be there for you, like no one else before
Too serious, too soon, I wanted you to love me
It's been a rainy afternoon, now I'm staring at the moon
Thinking we got too serious, too soon
Too soon, it's not right, it's not fair
Missing you, baby, cuts like a knife
What if you were the love of my life
Too serious, too soon, I wanted you to love me
I wanted to be there for you, like no one else before
Too serious, too soon, I wanted you to love me, oh yeah
We got too serious, too soon
I wanted to be there for you, like no one else before
Too serious, too soon, I wanted you to love me
It's been a rainy afternoon, now I'm staring at the moon
Thinking we got too serious, too soon
