

Only You

Mikhael Paskalev

I never needed you,
Like I really do, right now.
Oh, I've been feeling down since you ain't been around.
And I know how I am blessed,
But you leaving leaves me helpless down inside.
But I guess I'll be alright. Only you,
Could I dare to see the colours in your eyes,
Only you,
I've been fooled by your flesh and sun kissed thigh. Won't you just show me how our story's gonna end?
Is it likely we're friends? Oh now, you know,
There are places you should go.
And you're known to tell a lie,
But I guess I'll still try and stick around,
I'm your consolation clown. Only you,
Could I dare to see the colours in your eyes,
Only you,
I've been fooled by your flesh and sun kissed thigh.
Only you,
And the way starlight your dark brown eyes.
Lonely me,
and the thought of you undressing by my side. Only you,
I just never understood why we should drop it.
Only you,
I just never seemed to know how to stop.
