Chrome Ocean

Whalers

Is it any wonder that
All the oceans are made of chrome
I know I promised you the sun
All of it's rays
Now you're stuck here the rest of your days
You'll be feelin' more than ever all alone

Stuck between glasses and bars
Thought i'd spend it in cars
Took my friends then you took it too far
Now I'm feelin' more than ever all alone

Live it, live it up boys
Hear your graves all callin' you
I know I promised you a sun
That was true
And you stuck me west of you
Descended from Heaven
But so far away, fallin'
Ooh, from you lovin' your God

Seratonin up boys
Micrograms drip down over you
I photosynthesized a son
So his rays
Energize you the rest of your days
Just to feel it from Heaven
But so far away, fallin'
Ooh, from you lovin' your God

Now you're stealin my sympathy
Burnin my coal
It's on
Take it straight from me
Go on home
