

Love And Let Love

Gossip

There are pictures of me around your room
You come on strong, too much, too soon
And unfortunately I'm not amused
Don't get me wrong, don't get confused Ooh, ahh
This is the last time I love and let love
Ooh, ahh
This is the last time I love and let love
Yeah, yeah There are certain things you can't foresee
I have visions of you but not with me
You know it's not like us to disagree
You'll get the point eventually Ooh, ahh
This is the last time I love and let love
Ooh, ahh
This is the last time I love and let love It is a long, long way to February
Where the ocean meets the sun
Got me wondering is this necessary
When we've only just begun Ooh, ahh
This is the last time I love and let love
Ooh, ahh
This is the last time I love and let love Ooh, ahh
This is the last time I love and let love
Ooh, ahh
This is the last time I love and let love The grass is greener, the air is sweeter
You have to see her to believe her
A great deceiver, won't help you either
You're only fallin' deeper and deeper Ahh, ooh, ah, ah, ah
Ooh, ahh
Ooh, ah, ah, ah, It is a long, long way to February
Where the ocean meets the sun
Got me thinking is this necessary
When we've only just begun It's a long, long way
Such a long, long way
It's a long, long way to February
Where the ocean meets the sun
