The Tempter

Trouble

I am the tempter, ruler of hell
Bringer of evil, bewareWatch for temptation for it is there
Takes his time but loves to dare
All the people they are losing their minds
He don't care, takes all kindsSays, Love won't you take a bite
God appears says, "This ain't right"
We are damned for what evil has done
You know now the tempter has wonI am the one, the almighty
I'll give you the good things in life, take meIt is said God tempt no man
Keep in mind you know He can Listen to one now this we must
For we are all conceived with lustThe tempter, he taketh you brain
We know now who will reign
God says, It bringeth forth sin
Take my word it brings on deathThis time you have won but what about the next
You know I'll get you, bastards
When you are losing your mortal soul
It's too late to cry to the Lord, hear me now all you sinners
