

The Polaroid Doll

Urge Overkill

You said, you wanted something
I give no promises
Is that what you want, baby?
You gave me half a chance
And half your body I had to take it It's a doll faced Polaroid
I'm gonna hang it on my wall
And call it Polaroid doll
I wanted a Polaroid Now I just wanna talk about it
Child, I got something to say
Though don't worry, mama
I'm not about to give it away It's a doll faced Polaroid
Gonna hang it on my wall
And call it Polaroid doll
I wanted a Polaroid, Polaroid doll
I wanted a Polaroid You wanna stick around, baby, I don't care
If you gonna take a ride to my dead end heart
Don't ever take my kissin' for a handshake
