

The Blue Collar Rock

The Tractors

Where's it gonna end, when's it gonna stop?
Or at least slow down so maybe I can get off
My world's tied to the tickin' of a time clock
If my life was a dance, it'd be 'The Blue Collar Rock' Elvis was king when I was a kid
Rock was a thing that Chuck Berry did
Now that I'm older an' slower an' tired
My life is certified, 'Solid rock hard' Where's it gonna end, when's it gonna stop?
Or at least slow down so maybe I can get off
My world's tied to the tickin' of a time clock
If my life was a dance, it'd be 'The Blue Collar Rock' I could've been a contender, I never got the chance
I might've been a dancer, never learned to dance
I could've won the game, I just never got the cards
My life is certified, 'Solid rock hard' Where's it gonna end, when's it gonna stop?
Or at least slow down so maybe I can get off
My world's tied to the tickin' of a time clock
If my life was a dance, it'd be 'The Blue Collar Rock' Where's it gonna end, when's it gonna stop?
Or at least slow down so maybe I can get off
My world's tied to the tickin' of a time clock
If my life was a dance, it'd be 'The Blue Collar Rock'
My world's tied to the tickin' of a time clock
If my life was a dance, it'd be 'The Blue Collar Rock'

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>