New Experiment

Silent Force

[Beyrodt / Cooper]He awakes, lying on a table
Bright lights, burning my eyes
Staring face, of a man in a dark cloud
Informing me of the ever profoundI asked, the question
His voice confirms
What happened before ?Who knows, who lies
Who knows that I am still alive ?Two to sin, and one to die
This is where the problem lies
The cycle of the hands,
On the clock will circle two more times
(Despite a plea of grand)New Experiment
Playing God, with a twist of fate
New Experiment,
It's all in the new experiment
Cheated into to a certain fateThe ones who have past
Will be brought back in
Only to be sent,
Back up the hill again
For the last time,
It appears to be sure
Regardless of the scene
Nothing is pure,I asked, the question,
Am I the first one ?
Or were there ones before ?
They told me, no worries,
I'm the one who opens up the doorOne to die and two sin
This is where it all begins,
Spinning thoughts
That is in my head,
Many things are left unsaidNew Experiment
Playing God, with a twist of fate
New Experiment,
It's all in the new experiment
Cheated into a certain fate(One to die and two to sin
One face, shows a grin)I asked, the question,
Since I'm the first one
No one else has come before
Who knows, you lie
I'm now the one that has to say goodbyeTwo to sin and one to die

This is where our problem lies
The cycle of the hands,
On the clock will circle two more times
(Despite a plea of grand)
