Liscannor Bay

Bruce Foley

Stars out to play love, on a spring fairy night
Call of the curlew, Oh the willow is blind
Sound of the sea break on emerald spray;
A sunset or moonbeam on Liscannor Bay

Knew that I loved you my only desire
To be our own company, watch the flames in the fire
Knew that I loved you with you I will stay
How mellow the light shines on Liscannor bay

Fields of our childhood still fresh as the day
When i first saw you playing by the small cocks of hay
Our friends and neighbours stood watching on by
Your laughter went ringing to the larks in the sky

Knew that I loved you my only desire
To be our own company, watch the flames in the fire
Knew that I loved you with you I will stay
How mellow the light shines on Liscannor bay

Time rolls along love, never you mind
The breeze from the ocean can be gentle and kind
Each song from your heart dear, it carries me there;
To the dew drops and roses, my cottage in Clare

Knew that I loved you my only desire
To be our own company, watch the flames in the fire
Knew that I loved you with you I will stay
How mellow the light shines on Liscannor bay
