Frozen Fear

Gov't Mule

Saw you from the corner of my eye
I know loneliness when I see it
Normally I'm not the hero type
There was something between us I could feel it
I could feel itSo I thought I'd throw you a line
I needed one myself so many times
Now here we are somewhere between thankful and where do we go now(Chorus)
Know you're just running scared
After all you've been through you've got to be aware
Don't be afraid to live your life my dear
Loneliness is just frozen fearFind some place soft and warm
We could all use a little shelter from the storm
Times like these I'd like to leave it all behind
I know a new sun is gonna rise and shine(Chorus)
Well you're just running scared
After all you been through you've got to be aware
Don't be afraid to live your life my dear
Loneliness is just frozen fearI know you think it can't be done
But every moment a new life is begun
People rise above everyday
Things that you and I will never have to faceHold onto me if you need to
I know the river's deep and wide
Trust in me I'll see ya through
And I'll be there on the other side(Chorus)
Well you're just running scared
And after all you've been through you've got to be aware
Don't be afraid to live your life my dear
Loneliness is just frozen fearYes it is
Maybe i can melt it
Maybe i can melt it
I'd like to try
Oh oh oh oh
