Unpredictable

Celeste Buckingham

Call me an ambulance
I need a doctor
Cause all these problems every day keep getting harder
Don't have a backup plan
I need a way out
My head keeps spinning but my feet still keep me on the groundI feel like falling but I know that I'm afraid of heights
But there's no stopping where I'm going, can't get off this ride
I can't control it but I hope I'm gonna be alright
Whoa o whoa o oI can't take it
It's so unpredictable
I can't take it
Makes me want to lose control
So good to be gone I'm best without you
It's feeling so wrong but I'mma pull through
I can't take it
It's so unpredicta unpredictable
Unpredicta unpredictableIt's getting serious
Take all my medicine
Before I overdose and try to run to you again
It's getting dangerous
Blow it up like dynamite
These walls are crumbling and the fires out for you and II feel like falling but I know that I'm afraid of heights
But there's no stopping where I'm going, can't get off this ride
I can't control it but I hope I'm gonna be alright
Whoa o whoa o oI can't take it
It's so unpredictable
I can't take it
Makes me want to lose control
So good to be gone I'm best without you
It's feeling so wrong but I'mma pull through
I can't take it
It's so unpredicta unpredictableI can't take it, I can't face this on my own
Time feels wasted knowing that I've got to leave it alone
But I can't do this, hope is hopeless
Why is it that unpredictable always starts with you
Unpredictable always starts with you
Unpredictable always starts with you
Unpredictable always starts with

Whoa oo unpredictableI can't take it
It's so unpredictable
I can't take it
Makes me want to lose control
So good to be gone I'm best without you
It's feeling so wrong but I'mma pull through
I can't take it
It's so unpredicta unpredictableI can't take it
It's so unpredictable
I can't take it
Makes me want to lose control
So good to be gone I'm best without you
It's feeling so wrong but I'mma pull through
I can't take it
It's so unpredicta unpredictable
