

Hero With No Name (Rise Of The Lion 2014)

Miss May I

I'm on the frontline.
I'm ready to go head to head.
My life's signed away.
Won't waste the script that I wrote in my own blood.
There's a threat to my family.
There's a threat to you and your own life.
I'm not going anywhere until you're begging me.
Begging me on your hands and knees.
Can we survive through the changing times?
Can we survive with the world against us?
Show me a fight cause I'm ready to die.
I hope you're ready for my annihilation.
Can we survive through the changing times?
Can we survive with the world against us?
Show me a fight cause I'm ready to die.
I hope you're ready for my annihilation.
Can you smell the horror?
Taste the steel as you breathe it in.
Feels like I have no home.
That's the price you pay, a hero with no name.
I'm on the frontline.
I'm ready to go head to head.
I'll pull the trigger and I'll show you what I'm talking about.
I'll pull the trigger, show you what I'm talking about, a hero with no name.
A hero with no name.
I'm on the frontline.
And I'm ready to die.
Can we survive through the changing times?
Can we survive with the world against us?
Show me a fight cause I'm ready to die.
I hope you're ready for my, annihilation.
Can we survive through the changing times?
Can we survive with the world against us?
Show me a fight cause I'm ready to die.
I hope you're ready for my annihilation.
I'm ready to die.
I'm ready to die.
I'm ready to die.
I'm ready to die.

I'm ready to die.
Hope you're ready for my annihilation.
