

What Have I Got

Rollins Band

I've got a wantless need
I've got a thoughtless mind
I've got a heart that hates
I've got a wantless want
I can't unwind
I've got hands that like to break
They tell me : hold on
I am a clenched fist lookin' for a wall to kiss
They never let me go
I am a locked door lookin' for a foot to kick me to the floor
What have I got? I've got everything What have I got? Nothin' much at all
Self-hated, frustrated, my hands turn to fists
Violence - so hard to resist
Self rejected, well protected, to lock myself inside myself to get free
I get so mad I do things that I regret
Got no need, got no brain - inside my mind I feel no pain, no I feel the pounding in my head
So stupid, so stupid, not stupid enough to ever forget
I'm not feelin' too nice today
Start lookin', start lookin' - you better look out
.....
Just like that I can't stop, I can't stop - it pulls me together then it tears me apart
