Told You So

Joe Walsh

I tried to tell you long ago
Some people never learn
I hate to say I told you so
But I told you so

Stick your nose in someone's business
When it's none of your concern
Volunteer to be a witness
Some people never learn

What you do in own your room
On your own time
Nobody's cursed forever
If it don't do, if it don't do
Nobody no harm, no

You can form your own opinion
Have your own affair
Find a mess to get yourself in
No one should really care

And the people passing judgment
Are easily amused
And people want to throw the book
Well, they ought to take another look

What they do in their own room
On their own time
Nobody's cursed forever
If it don't do, if it don't do
Nobody no harm, no, no
