

Second Heartbeat

Shy Girls

Had enough conversation
I don't wanna hear your pleas, no
So much indignation How am I supposed to sleep? Cause I finally, finally conquered all the falseties
I'm moving up now
I'm gon' have to see your face around I'm not gonna wait for you to change when you want to
in a second heartbeat
I'm not listening to you spend like I used to in a second heartbeat So much still the same but not enough time to waste on you So many holes to fill and ways to give Not enough time to waste on you Cause I finally, finally conquered all the falseties
I'm moving up now
in a second heartbeat
I'm not listening to you spend like i used to in a second heartbeat I'm not gonna wait for you to change when you want to
in a second heartbeat
I'm not listening to you spend tonight in a second heartbeat Cause I finally, finally conquered all the falseties
I'm moving up now
I'm gon' have to see your face around
