

Origin of Sin

Aversion to Life

Bringing forth the sacred insanity

In the Beginning -there was pain there was life
Balance perfected -origin of sin and strife
Darkness arises -from the beast inside me
Original treachery -first experience of suffering

My pain everlasting from infinity Here from beginning to the end
Torrential suffering excruciate On Eve's apple I masturbate
Defiled cum covers the scorched earth Spreading the seed of affliction
Infestation of the perfect garden Slithering into the promised crease

Die!

Birth a stillborn with only one arm, unholy conception beginning of my breed
Trusting mortal treachery such a simple mind on thee rotting inside of me
Immaculate defilement chronic disembowelment sufferings incarnate recreates my seed
Infesting humanity infatuation savoring multiplied by my hate, affliction, nauseate

Creation of light and darkness at the same moment
Power cannot thrive without it's opposite
Beginning is the end of hope for reality
Malignant right embody terror
Hostility breeds contempt, Bringing forth my hate
Upon this world Malevolence, Procreate
Corrupting the genesis blessing of malaise
Festering in all bodies

Die!

My pain everlasting from infinity Here from beginning to the end
Torrential suffering excruciate On Eve's apple I masturbate
Defiled cum covers the scorched Earth spreading the seed of affliction
Infestation of the perfect garden Slithering into the promised crease
