

Babylonia

Nemhain

No we're not the same,
you change your colours like you change your name face of the saint, you're a reptile shedding is your game all that shines isn't no gold, dirty blonde ain't got no soulI don't remember, it's not real
I don't remember, what I feel you were my prison baby, deny my pride you are the answer, die insideHeart as black as coal, you paint your face with roses and vitriol leave a trail of poison from very hole Queen of extreme take your throne, grind yourself down to the boneI don't remember, it's not real
I don't remember, what I feel you were my prison baby, you were my pride you are the answer, die insideSweet as sugar, sick as Cancer Dirty Blonde where is the answer
Sweet as sugar, sick as Cancer
Dirty Blonde where is the answer
Sweet as sugar, sick as Cancer
Dirty Blonde where is the answerAlways the whore yeah she's dead to the core eating the pain, yeah again and againDirty blonde forever, you ain't going to Heaven no you ain't going to Heaven, Dirty blonde forever
