Reincarnation

Easily Embarrassed

once parted body and soul believed to be the final stage man's arrogant perception of the grave mausoleum sanctuary of lies portal back to the dimension of life deceased souls of a wretched past far worse than heaven has cast rotting dead now brought to life supernatural evolution creating a new form of manpower of illusion emulate flesh and life transcend from their rest hunger of the dead pulsates in their bloodrebirth of the damned abhorence of mankind raping the law of nature break the threshold of timeresurrected walk amoung the unsuspecting growing in vast number until the dead outnumber the living complete the final seige ravage and take absolute control
