

(Love Comes) Falling Down

R. Scott

Will I play witness when you arrive?
For Iâ€™m still a young man floating in the tide

All that I want is to be by your side
When your love comes falling down

So many times Iâ€™ve acted the fool
Just to come upstream back to you

All that I want is to be by your side
When your love comes falling down

Thereâ€™s a seeker in my soul, in my restless soul
So many roads trying to find some truth
Letâ€™s move onâ€!

Will I be present if you arrive?
Iâ€™m still a young man swimming in the tide

All that I want is to be by your side
When your love comes falling down
