

No Buses

Arctic Monkeys

Lady where's your love gone?
I was looking but can't find it anywhere
They always offer when there's loads of love around
But when you're short of some it's nowhere to be found Well, I know your game, you told him yesterday
No chance, you'll get nothing from me
But now she's there, you're there and everybody's there
And he's in turmoil as puzzled as can be, just like me Let's go down, down low down
Where I know I should not go
Oh, and she thinks she's the one
But she's just one in twenty-four
And just 'cause everybody's doing it
Does that mean that I can too? Lady where's your love gone?
It was the antiseptic to the sore
To hold you by the hand must he first be in demand?
How he longs for you to long for him once more, just once more Let's go down, down low down
Where I know I should not go
Oh, and she thinks she's the one
But she's just one in twenty-four
And just 'cause everybody's doing it
Does that mean that I can too? Her eyes went down and cut you up
And there's nothing like a dirty look from
The one you want or the one you've lost An ache in your soul it's everybody's goal
To get what they can't have
That's why you're after her and that's why she's after him
But saying it won't change a thing
And now realizing it won't change a thing
Realizing it won't change a thing
