Hardcore Days & Softcore Nights

Aqueduct

Don't ever ask me where I go
Last man who asked me had to go
Because if you start asking then I'll be hostile acting
Don't ever ask me where I goDon't ever ask me where I'm from
In six states that's considered dumb
Because if you start asking, I'll pull this heat I'm packing
Don't ever ask me where I'm fromI've never been beaten, I won't stop competing
Don't ever ask me where I'm from
I get the red out when I take my lead out
Don't ever ask me where I'm fromI've never been beaten, I won't stop competing
Don't ever ask me where I'm from
I get the red out when I take my lead out
Don't ever ask me where I'm, don't ever ask me where I'm fromIn six states that's considered dumb
Don't ever ask me where I go
Just thought I outta let you know
Because if you start asking then I'll be hostile acting
