Special (feat. Jagged Edge)

Jacquees

You save me from time to time
Knowin' I ain't right
I should free your mind
You're everything I like
Baby this can't wait
I see you different
I might make you miss itI should give you all that you need
You've been more than special to me
You, you, you
I should give you...
Now lately, I've been twitching, how I'm doing my thing
Why every time I thought I found someone, shit just ain't the same
I don't wanna give up on love, naw
I got more in store for us, yeah
I flipped my rooms, just for you
I've thought about makin' a baby room
Cause you are closest to perfect
And girl, my love is as good as it's gon' get
I'm not playin' around with you, baby my love is true
With youI should give you all that you need
You've been more than special to me
You, you, you
I should give you all that you need (yeah, whatever you need)
You've been more than special to me (you're more, you're more)
You, you, you
I should give you
Whatever it is with you
Girl, I'm pullin' up every time, no conversation, or explanation from you
I should've been busy lovin' you, lovin' you
Girl, you saved me from time to time
Knowin' I ain't right
I should free your mind
Everything I like
Baby this can't wait
I see you different
I can make youI should give you all that you need(I should give you all) You've been more than special to me(you're special, special, special, special)

You, you, you
I should give you all that you need (give you all that you need)
You've been more than special to me (special, so special, special)
You, you, you
I should give you all that you need(all that you need)
You've been more than special to me(special)
I should give you
