

Pardon Me, I've Been Pardoned

The Harper Family

Verse 1

People like to remind me of the bad times
About the old man I used to be
They keep digging through the sins
I once were buried in until I made my way to Calvary
Seems they always forget that special pardon
When Jesus wrote a message on my heart
You're pardoned and set free my blood has made you clean
And about your past I've done forgot

Chorus

Pardon me I've been pardoned I'm not what I used to be
Thanks to the blood of Jesus from sin's prison I'm set free
And if you're worried about my old past I can't change the wrong I've done
But it don't matter cause I've learned to whom it may concern
Pardon me I've been pardoned

Verse 2

Well old Satan he's the world's worst
He likes to run those old memories through my mind
Just to watch my reaction but I give him no satisfaction because you see
I remind him all the time he had it made in the shade bossing and telling me what to do but he lost my affection when I made my confession and his future looks mighty grim and blue (Repeat Chorus)

Lyrics Submitted by Keith Muncy

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>