Anvil

The Trolleyvox

When you come and find me I'll be lost in reason
You'll be like the apple of it
You'll be like the apple of it
You'll be like the apple of my eye
When you come and find me I'll be lost in reason
You'll be like the apple of it
You'll be like the apple of it
You'll be like the apple of my eye
When you were my angel I was like you're anvil
When you were my angel I was like you're anvil
Please let me down now
Please let me down now
When you come and find me I'll be lost in reason
You'll be like the apple of it
You'll be like the apple of it
You'll be like the apple of my eye
When you come and find me I'll be lost in reason
You'll be like the apple of it
You'll be like the apple of it
You'll be like the apple of my eye
When you were my angel I was like you're anvil
When you were my angel I was like you're anvil
Please let me down now
Please let me down now
Rain, raining away, it's so hard
Please let me down now
