

Meant to Be(Acoustic)

Hiding In Thailand

I wanted to let you know, the moment I realized.
I cant live without your smile, and I'm dying inside your eyes.
But you know me, I dont always, tell you how I feel.
You were meant for me.
I've been waiting so long now. I have to believe,
that we were meant to be.
If there's a thousand people watching us and you're all I see,
then you were meant for me.

I wanted to let you know, that you look beautiful tonight.
I was hoping you'd like to dance, if I can just get my timing right...
But you know me, I dont always, tell you how I feel.
You were meant for me.
I've been waiting so long now. I have to believe,
that we were meant to be.
If there's a thousand people watching us and you're all I see,
then you were meant for me.
