

Raining R.E.D. (feat. Clareta Haddon-Jackson)

Deitrick Haddon

[chorus]

It's Raining red!

Showers of the love of Jesus

It's in the air

His blood is flowing from the cross

Straight To My head

Its Restoring everything that's damaged It's raining Red!

It's washing my sins out

I don't care who knows

Im surrounded by the grace and mercy everywhere i go

Its Restoring Everything that's Damaged

[Verse 1]

When the load got too heavy

He helped me carry the load

He didn't let me bare the burden alone

And now I've been set free

No chains holding me

He reminded me of the sacrifice he made on Calvary

Now the windows of heaven are open

Pouring out a blessing over me

[Chorus]

[verse 2]

I thought he forgot about me

Said he didn't love me

Didn't know it was working out for my good

That's when God came and found me

He put his loving arms around me

Ohh, Jesus came to my rescue

Just like I knew he would

I should've never doubted my Jesus

Cause he's always been good It's Raining, Its raining Red [15x]
