

All I See

Dido

I thought it was done when I packed my bags and walked into the light
I picked the books I thought I should and closed the door behind
And when I handed back the keys I thought that I was free No shame, no dirt, no surprises wait for me I want to believe that where I began is not where I'll always be But you're all I see and I carry you with me
You're all I see and I carry you with me
Thought it was safe to assume once I locked up the room
That I'd be gone for good but I would be back soon Memories burned out still I'm smelling the fumes Melodies turned down still I'm singing the tunes Like a witch on a broom I wish I could fly fly away Disappear into the ether find a hideaway
But the memories invade when I lie awake Can't hide from yourself is what I'm trying to say
And by the way what would I be without my past Only find the right number when I doubt my math Avoid blunders only after I recount my last Setbacks that don't kill me just amount to laughs Anyway if I could turn back the hands of time Would I change the events or change my mind Wouldn't recognise myself without my doubts and fears Got a feeling all I need is all right here
And you're all I see and I carry you with me
You're all I see and I carry you with me
Amended verse: I've been told apples don't fall far from the tree
I hope they're wrong when they're talking about me all I see are the ruins of a plan gone wrong all I need is a reason to keep on and stay strong gotta couple old ghosts that won't leave me alone even after moving three thousand miles from home thought I shook 'em when I hit Brooklyn wasn't even looking but they're putting their mark on everything I do find a few quiet moments and they creep back through infiltrated my dreams and held my sleep back too I don't know where I could go without them following me it seems everywhere I look they're all I see You're all I need
You're all I need
You're all I see and I carry you with me
You're all I see and I carry you with me
