Some Are

Hudson Moore

Some are gonna give you that hello smile
Reel right in from a country mile
Turn a loose spark into a full-on fire
Itâ€™s what they do
Some are gonna make you wanna wash your truck
Open that door as you help her up
Take her downtown spend all your bucks
For a kiss or two
Yeah

Some are gonna make you feel brand new
Some are gonna break your heart in two
Not all of them are gonna let ya call them baby
Not all of them are gonna give you more than a maybe
Not all of them are gonna find a way to drive you crazy
But some are

Some are gonna wanna sip chardenay
Some are gonna wanna shoot whiskey straight
Some are gonna wanna dance the night away
So tip the band
Take her hand
Some are gonna wanna hear the Rolling Stones
Turn around and wanna hear old George Jones
Anything baby thatll keep you close
Pass it slow

Some are gonna make you feel brand new
Some are gonna break your heart in two
Not all of them are gonna let you call them baby
Not all of them are gonna give you more than a maybe
All of them are gonna find a way to drive you crazy
But some are

Maybe You
Wanna take a sunset drive
Lay a blanket on a river side
Stare up at the stars all night
For every girl in this world there is a guy

Some are gonna make you feel brand new
Some are gonna break your heart in two
Not all of them are gonna let you call them baby
Not all of them are gonna give you more than a maybe
Not all of them are gonna find a way to drive you crazy
But some are

Yeah
Some are
Some are
Yeah, some are
