Summer to Me

Graham Colton

Long way home
You waited the fall to speak
You shed your skin
But got sand in the pockets
Your sunrayed eyes
You lapped up in the city streets
And long, gray skies
You said you had to move forwardDon't let go, it's only November
You were always summer to me
Finally turned, your smile is so easy
Don't give way to the fall
You're still summer to me
Oh, oh, oh
Don't give way to the fall
You're still summer to me
You're set on spin
And footsteps in the sand don't repeat
And I'm waist-high
With your picture to lock in
Sunrayed eyes
And another night just faded
And long, gray skies
That fall in the ocean but I'm still waitingDon't let go, it's only November
You were always summer to me
Finally turned, your smile is so easy
Don't give way to the fall
You're still summer to me
Oh, oh, oh
Don't give way to the fall
You're still summer to me
Oh, oh, oh
It's only November
Sunrayed eyes
They lied and I'm still holding on
Those skies
They lied, the days were goldenDon't let go, it's only November
You were always summer to me
Finally turned, your smile is so easy
Don't give way to the fall

You're still summer to me
Oh, oh, oh
Don't give way to the fall
You're still summer to me
Oh, oh, oh
I know it's the summer
