Corrupt

Xeno & Oaklander

I could corrupt you
In a heartbeat
You think you're so special
Think you're so sweetBut what are you trying
Don't even tempt me
Soon you'll be crying
And wishing you'd dreamt meYou'll be calling out my name
When you need someone to blameI could corrupt you
It would be easy
Watching you suffer
Girl, it would please meBut I wouldn't touched you
With my little finger
I know it would crush you
My memory would lingerYou'd be crying out in pain
Begging me to play my gamesI could corrupt you
It would be ugly
They could sedate you
But what good would drugs be?But I wouldn't touched you
Put my hands on your hips
It would be too much to
Place my lips on your lipsYou'd be calling out my name
Begging me to play my games
