

Deep

Nickelback

And you see much better than I see
And you know all that I'm thinking
To define or redefine too slow
And it seems all that I'm sinkingRunning through the deep
Gonna find the backwoods
I found out, yeah yeah
All day long
Who will be the big men
Giving some, yeahAnd you bleed much better than I bleed
And you've shown all that is so good
And your word, much better than my word
And you stand right where a hole shouldRunning through the deep
Gonna find the backwoods
I found out, yeah yeah
All day long
Who will be the big men
Giving some, ohOh yeah
Oh yeah
Oh yeah, ohTo feel divine
To hold onto oneself
To give and to give and
To never receive by myselfRunning through the deep
(I want it)
Gonna find the backwoods
(I need it)
I found out much more than he did
(I felt)All day long
(To give it back somehow)
Who will be the big men
Giving some
(I'm ready to forgive now)Running through the deep
Gonna find the backwoods
I found out, yeah yeah
All day long
Who will be the big men
Giving some, yeahOh yeah
Oh yeah
Oh yeah, oh
