

Good Girl, Bad Boy

Florida Georgia Line

She's a little red wine, he's a little bit whiskey smoke
He's a ragged on the edge, he's keepin' it holdin' out hope
She's a front pew hallelujah, drop another 20 in the plate
He's on the back row a little hung over, bout 20 minutes late
She's a good girl, sky blue turquoise
Fallin' for a bad boy, drivin' that Detroit
Big block, cruisin' up the black top
Turnin' up a corn row, scare crow, farm house gravel road
Comin' for a good girl, countin' down the sun set
Never been road car, racin' like a Corvette
Got a little wildfire burnin' in her angel eyes
Probably ain't never been lost after midnight
Tryna to be a good girl
But fallin' for a bad boy
Tryna to be a good girl
But fallin' for a bad boy
Well she's sundress cotton, he's grease on a Carhartt shirt
And she's a kindle in the wind, he's a light it up and let it burn
And every time she's with him
All she wants to do is kiss him
First thinking maybe she can fix him
And he's thinkin' he'd love to let her try
She's a good girl, sky blue turquoise
Fallin' for a bad boy, drivin' that Detroit
Big block, cruisin' up the black top
Turnin' up a corn row, scare crow, farm house gravel road
Comin' for a good girl, countin' down the sun set
Never been road car, racin' like a Corvette
Got a little wildfire burnin' in her angel eyes
Probably ain't never been lost after midnight
Tryna to be a good girl
But fallin' for a bad boy
Tryna to be a good girl
But fallin' for a bad boy
And every time she's with him
She knows she prolly outta quit him
But he don't wanna let her get away
She's a good girl, sky blue turquoise
Fallin' for a bad boy, drivin' that Detroit
Big block, cruisin' up the black top
Turnin' up a corn row, scare crow, farm house gravel road
Comin' for a good girl, countin' down the sun set
Never been road car, racin' like a Corvette
Got a little wildfire burnin' in her angel eyes

Probably ain't never been lost after midnight

Tryna to be a good girl

But fallin' for a bad boy

Tryna to be a good girl

But fallin' for a bad boy Yeaah

She's so good, she's so good, she's so good

She's so good, she's so good, she's so good

She's so good, she's so good, she's so good

But fallin' for a bad boy
