saranghae uuu ye wo eoeoheo saranghaeEnglish Translation:As we're in the same time, I see you smile

Now only you are in my eyes
Just like fate, each day gets filled with you
It already feels like a thousand years has passedI only feel you
Against my white skin
Your breath softly touches me
I dream every day
Truly, like a lie
You came to me without a wordThe moment you started to breathe
You became my heart
I want to dream with you and love you
I want to live my days in your precious arms
I love you, you are my destiny
Carry On Carry On
Carry On Carry OnIn the same space, I am falling for you
Now only you can feel my heart
You keep pacing through my heart
If I extend my hand, it seems like I can touch youI only feel you
Against my white skin
Your breath softly touches me
I dream every day
Truly, like a lie
You came to me without a wordThe moment you started to breathe
You became my heart
I want to dream with you and love you
I want to live my days in your precious arms
I love you, you are my destiny
Carry On Carry On
Carry On Carry OnI love you
You became my heart
I want to dream with you and love you
I want to live my days in your precious arms
I love you, you are my destiny
I love you, I love you
