Sweeter

Meiko

Once upon a time It was good he was mine Everything was going just fine Then you came along Everything, it went wrong And nothing seemed to fit right He's yours now Lost and found Leave this town And give him back to me Cause i'm sweeter than you'll ever be Sure, you're kind of hot But it's all that you've got You will never be the jackpot And yeah he likes to play He'll come back someday Cause he knows you're just a coin slot He's yours for now Lost and found Leave this town And give him back to me Cause i'm sweeter than you'll ever be Give him back to me Cause I'm sweeter than you'll ever be Give him back to me Cause I'm sweeter than you'll ever be Give him back to me Cause I'm sweeter than you'll ever be Give him back to me Cause I'm sweeter than you'll ever be Once upon a time It was good he was mine Everything was going just fine
