Sink

Quiet One

Bring me your light and Iâ€™ll trade you my dark,
Secret and lies, fabrications of heart
We feel so small when we look to the stars,
We pick out planets weâ€™d like to live on,
Twinkle-twinkle, little star,
How I wonder how much you cost,
Cusâ€™ I need to, go now
I need out

And I will be king, and youâ€™ll be my queen,
And weâ€™ll lead a life,
Poorer than poorer can be,
But weâ€™ll smile, tilâ€™ we die,
Safe in the knowledge the world we left was a lie,

Itâ€™s not fair that the rich get to leave,
Leaving the rest without family trees,
All of our friends stood alone on a hill,
Standing like statues immortal but still,

Twinkle-twinkle, little star,
How I wonder how much you cost,
Cusâ€™ I need to, go now
I need out

And I will be king, and youâ€™ll be my queen,
And weâ€™ll lead a life,
Poorer than poorer can be,
But weâ€™ll smile, tilâ€™ we die,
Safe in the knowledge the world we left was a lieâ€¦

Sink into dreamsâ€¦. Sink into dreamsâ€¦. Sink into dreamsâ€¦.

And I will be king,
and youâ€™ll be my queen,
And weâ€™ll lead a life,
Poorer than poorer can be,
But weâ€™ll smile,
tilâ€™ we die,

Safe in the knowledge the world we left was a lieâ€¦

Sink into dreamsâ€¦.

Lyrics Submitted by Abel

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/