

In My Room

Albert Hammond, Jr.

What's the use of all this talkin?
I can hear you as you walk away
Here in my room that's where I'll be
In my room
After all you're so excited
By all the dick you get invited to
But now I know you mustn't change
I won't go back 'cause you don't want me
Well, I miss you already
I miss you already
You see it got all so heavy
I miss you already
I'm so afraid that I'll wake up
All alone with the door shut
In my room that's where I'll be
In my room, she's in my room
Well, I miss you already
I miss you already
You see it all got so heavy
Yeah, but I miss you already
