Beauty's Running Wild

Scars on 45

Turn around,
Hold me when I sleep.
It's so much better when you're lying next to me.
You turned your back upon another soul.
So much to say.
So much you'll never know.Bear in mind the good times that we see,
And all the pressure it'll never come from me.
What a day to be left here on my own.
So much to say.
So much you'll never know.And I said how can you just walk away
When time is growing cheap?
There's nothing here to keep you in this place.
And I know you think those pretty eyes
Are nothing much to see,
But beauty's running wild on your face.
Yeah, beauty's running wild on your face.Turn around,
Can't you give me peace?
'Cause all you ever did
Was cause me too much grief.
There's nothing left to say or even do.
I need some time to move to someone new.
