

Same Old Loverman

Gordon Lightfoot

I'm not some long lost someone
Just dropped in to say hello
It's that same old lover man
Baby you lost so long ago'Cause I was born to believe
I never could deceive, believe meI hear no children's voices
Have they gone back to school
And that same old lover man
Is still acting like a foolI guess I was born to bring you grief
Though I never was a thief, believe meIt's cold outside your window
Please let me in, the night is wild
It's that same old lover man
Not some lonesome winsome childAn' I was born to believe
I never could deceive
