

Debbie Downer

Courtney Barnett

Tell me when you're getting bored and I'll leave
I'm not the one who put the chain around your feet
I'm sorry for all of my insecurities, but it's just part of me
Envy is thin because it bites but never eats
That's what a nice old Spanish lady once told me
Hey Debbie Downer turn that frown upside down and just be happy
I don't ask too much of you, it's true
And I can't read your mind
Don't stop listening I'm not finished yet
I'm not fishing for your compliments
I'm growing older every time I blink my eyes
Boring, neurotic everything that I despise
We had some lows we had some mids we had some highs
Sell me all your golden rules and I'll see
If that's the kind of person that I want to be
If I'm not happy I'll be glad I kept receipts
I won't ask too much of you
I used to wonder what to wear
Don't stop listening I'm not finished yet
I'm not fishing for your compliments

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>