No Turning Back

Moments Before Collision

Making a difference in my life now from today
I know a new meaning of love fucking lost through pain
Said to myself early the other day what what is a man who lets it get away
Trust

When we spread our wings
I donâ€™t want to regret (all of my mistakes)
Ill find what I long for
Never turning back (No turning back)
I see through all of the fake conscious doubt in you
You buried all of yourself in the dark deep blue

Iâ€™ll no longer be weak
Iâ€™ll no longer be weak

Im searching for a new beginning
Not a hope in the world
But for now Iâ€™ll take what I have coming and turn it around
Fuck

Deep down I know it will never go away
I will die before I forget all this pain
But ill find a way
Yes ill find a way to fucking cope

When we spread our wings
I donâ€™t want to regret (all of my mistakes)
Ill find what I long for
Never turning back (No turning back)

Fuck the disrespectful youth so full of shit
Never needing anyone
Ill show you what it feels like to taste the ground
Ill set you free

When we spread our wings
I donâ€™t want to regret (all of my mistakes)
Ill find what I long for

Never turning back (No turning back)
