Redeem Me

Michael English

Even before the sun rises again, weakens the night
Even before my eyes open to see the beauty of life
You redeem me now, You redeem me nowBefore my heart ever changes
Before my story has all the pages
Redeem now
You redeem me nowEven before the clouds whisper of rain, darken the sky
Even before my tears begin to fall, You wipe them dry
You redeem me now, You redeem me nowBefore my heart ever changes
Before my story has all the pages
Redeem now
You redeem me nowYou saw in me what could become
You see in me Your will be done
For you Lord, re
You redeem me now, You redeem me nowBefore my heart ever changes
Before my story has all the pages
Redeem now
You redeem me now
