

Try Honesty

Billy Talent

While I tripped, I fell down naked
While I scratched my knees, they bled
Sew up my eyes, knead now more
In our game there is no score
Forgive me father, why should you bother?
Try honesty, try honestly
Hop in your dump truck, reverse for good luck
Ride over me, ride over me
Take on the whole world, fight with the young girls
Die tragedy, die tragedy
Call me a cheapskate, come on for Pete's sake
Cry agony, cry agony
Cried insane, it's your fault, so sly
Your well of lies ran dry
And I cut the cord, free fall
From so high we seem so small
Forgive me father, why should you bother?
Try honesty, try honestly
Hop in your dump truck, reverse for good luck
Ride over me, ride over me
Take on the whole world, fight with the young girls
Die tragedy, die tragedy
Call me a cheapskate, come on for Pete's sake
Cry agony, cry agony
I talk to you
I'm insane, it's your fault
(Try)
I'm insane, it's your fault
(Cry)
I'm insane, it's your fault
(Cry)
Forgive me father, why should you bother now?
Forgive me father, why should you bother now?
Forgive me father, why should you bother?
Try honesty, try honestly
Hop in your dump truck, reverse for good luck
Ride over me, ride over me
Take on the whole world, fight with the young girls
Die tragedy, die tragedy

Call me a cheapskate, come on for Pete's sake

Cry agony, cry agony

Cry agony, cry agony

Try honesty, try honestly

Cry agony, cry agony
