No One

Athenaeum

You're telling me things
I already know.
You take me places
I never would go.
And you act so freely.
Like the world was your own.
You can do anything you want,
But don't you leave me alone.And no one feels...
And no one feels like we do.When will we learn,
That nothing is real?
And everything's changing,
Except what we feel.
And out on your doorstep, I was all butterflies.
'Cause all of the moonlight in the sky,
Was no match for your eyes.And no one feels...
And no one feels like we do.You're telling me things
I don't want to hear.
But you are my answer,
When nothing is clear.
And the music played softly,
As you whispered a word.
I had to sigh and catch my breath,
From what I had heard.And no one feels...
And no one feels like we do.
