Why Won't You Smile

Chester See

Is it something on the ground
Cos it's sunshine all around
Don't you wanna see it
Is there something I could say
That'll make it all okay
And help you to believe itI feel so weak
Watching you sinkChorus:
Why won't you smile
Just for a little while
Just for a moment
You can show it, it's alright
Why won't you smile
Give it a try
Just let it shine
Oh why won't you smileYour tears have gone away
They leave you with the stains
There's no denying
You hide behind your hair and your bitter broken stare
I know that you've been cryingWhat did you lose
What can I do-Chorus-So the world can see
Smile, if not just for me
Oh smile
Ooh-Chorus-Ooh
Why won't you smile
