

Shameful

Flapjackers

You should of ran for days, you embrace, you betray
What's left to say, your set to shame
But when you ran you tripped
And fell on a path that led you straight to hell
This is the salt in your wounds, this is why I told you so
If you knew what I know, would you move like you do
With my lists of discontent
Yeah, what about my pain to destroy
But did you have a reason why
Here's to lowering caskets of old friends
Choice they got so close and birth the new day
With the death of an old and
(Start over, start over)
Here's to burying hatchets in those who
You never call your friends
And birth the new day with the death of an old and
(Start over, start over)
Can you breath in reach and let it out
Thee evil inside I see the new world tonight
With every venomous move, I will suck you up and spit you
Get out of my life, get out of my sight
Here's to lowering caskets of old friends
Choice they got so close and birth the new day
With the death of an old and
(Start over, start over)
Here's to burying hatchets in those who
You never call your friends
And birth the new day with the death of an old and
(Start over, start over)
You let yourself get carried away
Don't act like your ashamed
You let yourself get carried away
By your hand now set the blame
You let yourself get carried away
Bury this one you won't waste
And now it's time to see
What you don't mean to me
Why can't you say
What you told me, told me

Why can't you say
What you told me, told me
Here's to lowering caskets of old friends
Choice they got so close and birth the new day
With the death of an old and
(Start over, start over)
Here's to burying hatchets in those who
You never call your friends
And birth the new day with the death of an old and
