A Kiss Could Be Deadly

Soft whispers in the dark. You want it. Well i need it. The beating of an empty heart, it's not easy. Motionless on the floor, foreshadowed, rejected, we can't escape this anymore. (Can't escape this anymore). You... you're so cliché, so what will you say? When there is no defense? We're so past tense. It's sick as the daylight fades our twilight waits to take it all. whoa-oh-oh-oh-oh. Don't take this as a threat, it's a promise and i mean it. i'll be your last regret cant u see it? Eclipsed by something more aesthetic, less haunting. A WARNING THAT U CAN'T IGNORE (a warning that u can't ignore) And you... you're so cliché so what will you say. when there is no defense. We're so past tense. It's sick as the daylight fades our twilight waits to take it all. Whoa-oh-oh-oh! Romance is dead.....Romance is dead and gone leave it buried. Romance is dead and gone leave it buried. And you.....you're so cliché. so what will you say? When there is no defense?. We're so past tense. It's sick as the daylight fades our twilight wait's. To take it all. whoa-oh-oh-oh-oh! Romance is dead and gone leave it buried. Romance is dead and gone leave it buried.
